

Wushu Culture Show

'The Invincible beyond Time'

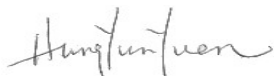

(Farmfest 2015 Mongkok Fa Hui Park, Kowloon, Hong Kong)

Invitation

The first wushu culture on-stage show in Hong Kong, namely 'The Invincible beyond Time' will be performed on 25 January 2015, Sunday at 2:30-3:30pm in Mongkok Fa Hui Park, Kowloon, Hong Kong. Having 'Mizong Quan' been recognized and included in The First List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Hong Kong, we are committed to the development of creative cultural tourism show performance. On-going efforts are out there to build a brand new element for the wushu knowledge-based cultural tourism in Hong Kong, resulting in the promotion of cultural exchange in the field of Chinese cultural heritage.

This year's show incorporates knowledge and culture of Chinese military science and wushu, embracing the arts, culture and entertainment therein. Amongst them is presentation and on-stage performance to the audiences the "Eight-Battle Grand Array" of the Three Kingdoms period. All the more, the program emcees will narrate, comment and guide the show. This not only helps the audiences understand more easily the relevant history of China, but also rewards them with great joys and funs accumulated in such a wonderful festive atmosphere; while they are appreciating the Chinese cultural values.

You are cordially invited to come visit Farmfest 2015 in the coming Sunday afternoon and enjoy the fun and pleasure with our wushu culture on-stage performance commencing at 2:30pm. This function is open to the public and is admission free.
